
Raymond F. Geoffroy

Assistant Deputy Commandant Plans, Policies and Operations (Security) Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps

Mr. Geoffroy is currently the Assistant Deputy Commandant, Plans, Policies and Operations (Security), Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps, in Washington, DC. He was assigned to this position in October 2003. Mr. Geoffroy is responsible for developing, managing, and implementing policies and programs that provide security and protection to all Marines, their families, Civilian Marines and contractors supporting the Marine Corps.

Mr. Geoffroy initially received a Senior Executive Service Limited Emergency Appointment (LEA) in February of 2002 as a result of the terrorist attacks on September 11, 2001; and was subsequently appointed to the Senior Executive Service and his current position in October 2003. Mr. Geoffroy has 18 years of Federal Service.

Mr. Geoffroy formed and became the first Director of the Security Division, Plans, Policies and Operations Department upon commencement of his Limited Emergency Appointment in February 2002. To better focus Marine Corps force protection and security efforts, Mr. Geoffroy consolidated these functions into one organization to synchronize and coordinate these efforts across the Marine Corps. Responsibilities range from security and protecting Marine Corps installations and operating forces to providing Marine Security Guards to the Department of State for American Embassies and Consulates worldwide.

Mr. Geoffroy served as the Head, Security and Law Enforcement Branch, Operations Division, Plans, Policies and Operations from June 1995 through February 2002. In this capacity, he provided direction and guidance for the provision of security forces to the Navy, served as the Military Police occupational sponsor, and initiated the establishment and sustainment of the Marine Corps Chemical Biological Incident Response Force (CBIRF).

Mr. Geoffroy started his Federal Service in July 1991 as the Head, Low Intensity Conflict Section, Special Operations and Low Intensity Conflict Branch, Operations Division,

Plans, Policies and Operations Department. He was responsible for Marine Corps security assistance programs, counterdrug programs, civil affairs and psychological operations programs.

Mr. Geoffroy attended Officer's Candidate School and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant, United States Marine Corps in April 1971. He served as an infantry officer for over 20 years with assignments that included Platoon and Company command; Aircraft Group Logistics Officer, Regiment Operations Officer, and Battalion Executive Officer. Mr. Geoffroy retired from the Marine Corps as a Major in June 1991.

He attended King's College in Wilkes-Barre, PA and graduated in 1970 with a bachelor's degree in political science. Mr. Geoffroy holds a master's of science degree in education from the University of Southern California, and a master's of science degree in national security strategy from the National War College. He is member of the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) and the American Society of Industrial Security (ASIS).

Mr. Geoffroy's naval decorations include the Meritorious Service Medal, Navy Commendation Medal, Navy Achievement Medal, Meritorious Unit Commendation and Sea Service Deployment Ribbon. He was awarded the Presidential Rank of Meritorious Executive in September 2008.
